PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

University of Arkansas, 2003-present
College of Education and Health Professions

Senior Associate Dean, 2013-present; Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, 2009-2013;
Department Head, Rehabilitation, Human Resources, & Communication Disorders, 2006-2009;
Professor, Higher Education, Adult and Lifelong Learning, and Public Policy programs, 2005-present; Associate Professor, 2003-2005

San Jose State University, 1999-2003

Associate Dean, College of Education, Associate Professor, Educational Administration

Primary responsibility for the college offices of development, credentials, student services, and technology. Coordinated faculty and staff development activities, represented College administration to all committees, assisted in the coordination of school- and community college-based partnerships, and joint doctoral programs. Served as primary accreditation, budget, grievance, and planning officer. Accomplishments include: created leadership councils within bargaining units and streamlined office management procedures; doubled fund-raising totals and number of donors; coordinated successful re-accreditation self-studies, reports, and site visits for NCATE and the State of California; developed international exchange with three different institutions, and developed staff handbook and orientation procedures. Served on institutional committees, including undergraduate curriculum and general education assessment committee.

University of Alabama, 1994-1999

Chair, Higher Education Administration Program, 1997-1999

Associate Professor, 1997-1999, Assistant Professor, 1994-1997

Responsible for five full-time and six part-time faculty in a comprehensive (MA, EdD, PhD) graduate program. Coordinated workload distribution, data collection, course scheduling, teaching evaluations, mentoring, admissions and recruitment, student data management, advising assignments, planning and program review, and classroom assignments. Accomplishments included: increased MA enrollment from 6 to 54; developed student handbooks and web-page; developed, wrote, and approved comprehensive exam policy; created an HEA Alumni Society and scholarship fund; instituted graduate student orientation and organization; initiated comprehensive campus-wide internship program.

University of Nebraska-Lincoln, 1989-1994

Assistant Professor, Adult and Postsecondary Education, 1991-1994

Director, Nebraska Research and Development Unit for Vocational Education, 1991-1994

Graduate Research Assistant, 1989-1991

In addition to faculty duties, represented the State Department of Education to each of the vocational and occupational programs in Nebraska's 14 community, junior, and technical colleges. Brokered state and federal economic development money to business and industry in collaboration with two-year colleges, promoting such concepts as Train the Trainer, Just in Time, ISO, English as a Second Language, GED, and adult literacy training. Supervised $1 million annual budget. Coordinated state contract training with departments of Social Services, Labor, and Education.

Southern Illinois University Foundation, 1986-1989

Director of Annual Giving, 1987-1989

Assistant Director of Annual Giving, 1986-1987

Designed and implemented training programs for alumni and community volunteers; organized and staffed 11 academic unit telefund campaigns which increased giving 135% in collected contributions; supervised all annual fund activities on the Carbondale campus; recruited and supervised 1,500 annual fund volunteers for alumni chapters, academic units, student organization, and alumni association boards; instituted upgrading and renewal telefund and direct mail programs; produced quarterly fund appeals for prospect list of 150,000; supervised giving club committees, projects, and personal solicitations; coordinated the University's first senior class giving program; coordinated annual fund donor research program; supervised, staffed, and organized various seasonal and athletic receptions and events; and served as representative to various constituent groups (such as the Morris Library, Touch of Nature, parent programs, theater, etc.).
